

THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 25.

CHICAGO taxpayers are having a high time nowadays, as by the operations of a law passed by the last Legislature it is impossible to get judgment from any court against the delinquent property of taxpayers, so that the payment of taxes is purely a voluntary matter. A good many people availed themselves of this legal defect last year, and probably many more will do the same this year. This state of things is made still more pleasant by the fact that the corporation has issued all the bonds that are allowed by law, so that nothing more can be obtained by this kind of paper; it is largely in debt for temporary loans bearing a heavy rate of interest; the amount of its scrip on the market is said to be much larger than the public have any idea of; and the bottom dollar of the treasury is already in sight.

A SAVING HUSBAND.—"George, dear, don't you think it is rather extravagant of you to eat butter with that delicious jam?" "No, love—economical! Same piece of bread does for both!"—Punch.

At a parting at a Chicago railroad depot, "Do not forget me or cease to love me?" murmured the husband. "Never, never!" sobbed the wife, and she pulled out a handkerchief and tied a knot in it, that she might remember.

FALL CLOTHING.

My stock of FALL CLOTHING and GENTS FURNISHING GOODS is now complete, comprising the greatest variety of SUITS, of the latest styles, best material and finest finish ever before offered.

I am doing a large business, with comparatively small expenses; hence my ability to sell cheaper than the like can be procured in larger cities. My stock being unsurpassed in variety and quality, you will do well to give me a call and thereby save a large percentage.
